

in city

Champeon said. "They know when or where."
said "stings" will be set up package stores to look nors who ask adults to
em alcohol and the adults
gree to make the illegal
se.
ctives also will frequent
rs and restaurants more
looking for underage rs and the people who
Page A8

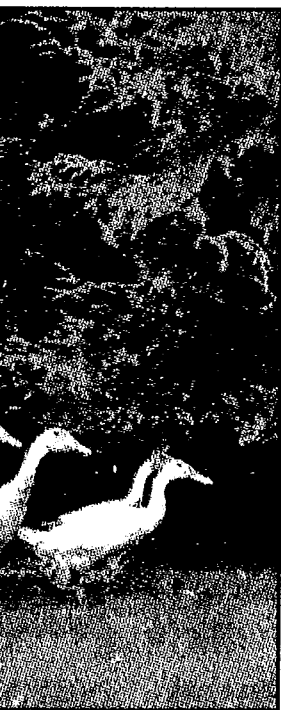

PHOTO BY JOHN J. CROOKES

me ducks along Shearing Festival

DAILY NEWS PHOTO BY GALEN MOORE

The developers of Wellington Crossing are being accused by some city officials of violating an agreement over tree removal.

Officials: Developer violated agreement

Some councilors irate over removal of trees on former Olympus Hospital site

By Galen Moore
DAILY NEWS STAFF

WALTHAM — City officials are upset with the developer of the former Olympus Hospital site for what they call a violation of the city's agreement with the builder.

Workers have removed a row of trees along Trapelo Road that one city councilor said were required to screen the 268-unit condominium development from the adjacent neighborhood.

The developer, Minnesota-based Pulte Homes, said it has not deviated in any way from approved plans for the site.

"We did not cut down any trees that we didn't have to,"
OLYMPUS, Page A8

ews	A3	Sports	B1-3
	A2	State	A5
ries	A8	Television	B5
	A9	Weather	A2

BUSINESS

How to use different tactics to sell your home. See story,